SUPPER TABLE GOSSIP

A meeting of city commissioners for the consideration of the 250 page building code presented by Earl Horwitz, city building inspector, was postponed yesterday because of the absence of Chairman Walter M. Connelly and James N. Glavin, city manager. It is expected that further consideration of the new code will be put off until after the special recall election.

Twenty pupils who make up a part of the graduating class of the eighth grades of the county schools had their names certified by County Superintendent Miss Irene Justice yesterday.

These pupils are eligible for entrance into high school next fall. Other names will be certified in the next few days. The names of the pupils certified were: District 1, Ranchos de Albuquerque; Venecuelas, Gobernacion, Alameda, Juan Jose, Alameda, District 11-Harold L. Hubbard, Louis Hubbard, both of Pajarito; District 12, Taos-Dennis Baas, Chester French, Stella Givens, Charles McDonald, Maxwell Miller, Mary Pickens, Francis Kiva, Agatha Springer, Fred Pfeiffer, Lucy Tingley; District 13, Dennis, Rosalie, Rosario, E. Sanchez, Luis Sanchez, all of Herverville; District 14, Mountainview-Los Górdolas.

Charles Hooks appeared before Judge McClellan in justice court this morning on a charge of racing his automobile with one driven by David Jacobsen on South Third street at 10:30 o'clock last night. The police say the cars were traveling at from 30 to 35 miles an hour. Hooks admitted he was speeding, but didn't think he was going that fast. He was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $15 or serve 15 days. Jacobsen is to appear later this afternoon to face the charge against him.

The Albuquerque chapter of the Association of Engineers will hold a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce tonight at 8 o'clock. All members and visiting engineers are urged to attend.

RUSSIAN WOMEN FIND DEATH IN SWAMPS

CONSTANCE GLASS. The stories of the poor city are haunted with hollow-eyed, sinking figures who were once carefree girls in cultured homes in Russia.

These girl refugees came out of Russia with General Wrangel's army, and having lost their clothes and money and sold their jewels, they now eke from week to week on a chancey picked up lot of muddering bread and high. Cash prices in addition to an impoverished one or two cups of coffee.

For those whose Slave girls still burn fiercely, there are the solemn cypress swamps. It is no unusual sight to see a group of peering misshapen drag the body of a woman or two caps off.
